

THIS WEEK'S HOT LIST

The movies and books not to miss

Film

Star Wars: The Rise of Skywalker

Out now on home-viewing platforms

Forty-two years after George Lucas first took cinemagoers into a galaxy far, far away, the Star Wars saga comes to a triumphant close with an adventure that sees Daisy Ridley's heroine Rey and her Resistance comrades Poe (Oscar Isaac) and Finn (John Boyega) attempt to foil the evil First Order one last time. The movie may fall short of the series' best instalments, but it's still full of swashbuckling action and spectacle.

Book

She Came to Stay

by Eleni Kyriacou

(£8.99, Hodder & Stoughton, PB)

In 1950s London, Dina has arrived from Cyprus and finds herself immersed in an exciting new world as she takes up a job repairing costumes at the Pelican Revue and befriends bubbly Bebba. But Bebba's secret threatens to destroy everything. This is an intriguing tale that is supported by the wonderful characterisation.

DVD

Doctor Who - Complete Series 12

RRP: £34.99

Jodie Whittaker's Thirteenth Doctor returns. Joined by Ryan, Yaz and Graham, the Doctor is set to face her toughest challenges yet. From monsters old and new to figures from Earth's history, viewers will love an eclectic set of guest stars including Stephen Fry, Sir Lenny Henry and Robert Glenister.
